INDIGO'S BIO

Growing up in Birmingham, Indigo was first introduced to entertainment by joining a theatre company at a very young age. At the age of 14, Indigo began to learn the guitar leading her to perform around her home city of Birmingham.

Indigo Marshall is the upcoming Birmingham born soulstress and her enviable work ethic has seen her through some fantastic musical opportunities. Her sound is powerful yet soft, smooth and bright, a soul singer through and through.

Most recently, Indigo released her debut single; "Emotional" and is currently recording new music, seeking to collaborate with other artists whilst performing up and down the country every chance she gets.

Indigo regularly performs to packed out venues in her home city and throughout the UK performing an eclectic mix of R&B, pop, soul and hip hop.

In 2018, she released a track called "Desire" with the well-respected British DJ Paul Morell, as featured on BBC Radio 1 and heard around the world from California to New Zealand. Also, early in 2019, she released "Count on Me" in collaboration with Sonel Skeete; a great medley of R&B greats.

Her unique blend of inspiring, soulful vocals connects the hearts of every listener.
